From the Pastor

Alleluia! Christ is risen! He is risen indeed! Alleluia!

What thoughts do these words create in your mind? Certainly, they remind us of Easter, and the message that Jesus is risen from the dead. We hear and use those words each year for Easter Sunday. We might think of the great hymns of the church that we sing on Easter, we might think of the smell of Easter Lilies, we might look forward to families joining us for Easter and a wonderful meal after church. (I hope the words, "Alleluia! Christ is risen!" do not lead to many people to think of the Easter Bunny!)

But how many of you read those words and thought of the word, "fearless?" In truth, we can be totally fearless because of Jesus' resurrection, and we see in the Book of Acts that after the resurrection, the Apostles were fearless, proclaiming the certain hope they had in Jesus' resurrection to all the world, despite persecution and martyrdom.

We live in a fearful world. We are surrounded by violence and threats of violence, pressures to conform to sinful worldly ways, natural disasters, family struggles, and much more. If we look around us, or if we look inside us, we have reason to fear.

But look to Christ's resurrection, and we can be fearless. Christ has conquered even death. What is the worst the world can do to us? Even death itself is defeated. This can make us fearless. This bold, triumphant thought comes out in what may well be one of the greatest Easter sermons ever preached. This sermon was preached by St. John Chrysostom in about 400 A.D. (I often incorporate this sermon into the Easter Vigil sermon, so it may sound familiar. It is always a great message, no matter how many times we hear it.)

Read through St. John Chrysostom's Easter Sermon below, and recognize the confidence, even fearlessness, that the message of Jesus' resurrection can bring. Chrysostom even starts by saying, "Let no one fear death!"

Here is Chrysostom's Easter Sermon...

"Let no one fear death, for the Death of our Savior has set us free.

He has destroyed it by enduring it.

He destroyed Hades when He descended into it.

He put it into an uproar even as it tasted of His flesh.

Isaiah foretold this when he said,

"You, O Hell, have been troubled by encountering Him below."

Hell was in an uproar because it was done away with.

It was in an uproar because it is mocked.

It was in an uproar, for it is destroyed.

It is in an uproar, for it is annihilated.

It is in an uproar, for it is now made captive.

Hell took a body, and discovered God.

It took earth, and encountered Heaven.

It took what it saw, and was overcome by what it did not see.

O death, where is thy sting?

O Hades, where is thy victory?

Christ is Risen, and you, o death, are annihilated!

Christ is Risen, and the evil ones are cast down!

Christ is Risen, and the angels rejoice!

Christ is Risen, and life is liberated!

Christ is Risen, and the tomb is emptied of its dead;

for Christ having risen from the dead,

is become the first-fruits of those who have fallen asleep.

To Him be Glory and Power forever and ever. Amen!"

Alleluia! Christ is risen! He is risen indeed! Alleluia! Be fearless!

In Christ,
Pastor Clayton

SUMMER SUNDAY SCHOOL & VBS VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

There was an important job to be done and Everybody was sure that Somebody would do it. Anybody could have done it, but Nobody did it. Somebody got angry about that because it was Everybody's job. Everybody thought Anybody could do it, but Nobody realized that Everybody couldn't do it. It ended up that Everybody blamed Somebody when Nobody did what Anybody could have.

OH NO! You know what is coming! Something needs to be done and we are looking for some Nobody's to do it!!!! Do you love children? Wow! Do we have an opportunity for you! We are looking for help with Summer Sunday School. Could you help one Sunday or a month of Sundays? Please talk to Marianne McDaniel or Anna Pannier. We will have lessons for you to teach. Can you help us? We are also looking for a VBS coordinator. You can help choose the week of VBS! This is a big task, but it is one week of commitment to be here for VBS. The kids love VBS, but it can't happen without YOU! Marsha Baro did this job last year and I have done it in the past. Please talk to either one of us if you want to know what is involved.

Our annual Easter Egg Hunt will be held on Saturday, April 1. (No fooling!) Plans are made for breakfast, crafts, story time, and of course, the hunt for Easter eggs.

We still have an open spot for a board member. The Board of Education works to assist the Preschool with their procedures and gives support and guidance as necessary. The board also works to give guidance to the Youth groups and Sunday School as needed, and plans Family Fun activities such as the Annual Easter Egg Hunt and the Fall Festival. Please consider volunteering your time and talents.

Happy Easter! Our school year is flying by! As we begin the month of April the students will continue to learn about the death and resurrection of Jesus.

We are so excited about the beginning of Spring! We have been able to get outside and visit the park. We look forward to more of that!

We are in the middle of 2023-2024 preschool registration. We do have spots available in our 3-year-old class. If you or someone you know are interested in registering your 3-year-old, you can contact me at zionpreschooldirector2020@gmail.com.

Elders Corner

“You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your brother’s eye” (Matthew 7:5)

What a powerful statement, as we learn all about judging others in Matthew 7 (verses 1 through 5). Perhaps someone just cut us off on the highway or said something that we either didn’t like or didn’t agree with. Often, the initial reaction is chalked with emotions. “What is wrong with that person,” or “Why are they doing that” can be some of our first thoughts.

What we don’t realize, however, is what other people may be dealing with at the time we were bothered or upset by their actions towards us. Folks may be dealing with an event or overwhelmed in their day to day lives.

My recommendation for all of us is to take a deep breath and see things from a different perspective. It is so easy to judge based on our emotions, our reactions, and even our choice of words. Be kind, be courteous, and be generous of yourself when dealing with others. We can all see the world a little clearer!

In Christ, Geoff Phillips

HE IS RISEN!!! I know we all love to hear those words! The children especially love to share this good news! We are enjoying learning some new songs every Sunday...stay tuned...the kids can sing the books of the Bible and we want to share that with the congregation.

We have 4 young men getting confirmed this month as well. We should all be proud of the hard work they have put in during the past 4 years. Please be sure to congratulate them. Confirmation will be held during the church service on April 23rd.

Please consider helping with summer Sunday School. We like to be able to give the teachers who have volunteered throughout the school year a break. We will provide you with lessons to teach. Dads, moms, grandmas, or grandpas, anyone who loves kids, would you please volunteer to teach one Sunday or a few Sundays during June, July, and August? We will have a sign up in the narthex.

HE IS RISEN INDEED!

Marianne McDaniel, Sunday School Superintendent

Dr. Maurice Boyer, the Conductor of the Chamber Orchestra, gave explanations about the pieces of music before they were played.

A wonderful crowd of over 180 people gathered to hear the concert of the Chamber Orchestra from Concordia University, Chicago on Sunday, March

Thank you to everyone who provided financial donations, donations of food, donations of hospitality, or helped in any other way to make this concert a huge success!

After the concert, the students from Concordia University, Chicago enjoyed a delightful supper with their host families from Zion. The meal was provided by the Ladies Aid. Thank you to the Ladies Aid, and to all the host families who opened their homes to spend a delightful evening with these wonderful college students!

After providing a nice breakfast for the students, the host families had their orchestra members back at Zion at 7:00 AM to get on the bus so they could travel to their next concert location. On Monday afternoon, the Chamber Orchestra played a concert with an instrument demonstration for students at the Lutheran School in Bourbonnais, IL, and then they played a full concert for the congregation at Saint Paul's Lutheran Church, Bourbonnais, IL, before driving back to Concordia Chicago, where they unloaded the bus and got back to their dorms about midnight!

MISSION SUNDAY AT ZION ON APRIL 30th

CENTRO DE MISERICORDIA Y SEMINARIO
CONCORDIA EL REFORMADOR

Come celebrate a Mission Sunday! At the SID Convention a year ago, the District entered into a mission partnership with the Seminario Concordia El Reformador (Concordia the Reformer Seminary) in the Dominican Republic. As a part of this mission partnership, the SID is hoping to send significant financial contributions to assist with the work of training pastors to serve across Central America and South America. At the Mission Sunday, we will have members of a mission team from Concordia Seminary in St. Louis who visited the DR in January with us at Zion, to hear a bit about their experiences there. We will join together for a Central American-themed meal in the gym after the service. (Two different offerings will be collected...one to cover the food costs for the meal, and one to go directly to the work of the Seminary in the Dominican Republic.) Mark your calendars now for the Mission Sunday on April 30, including the meal after the service.

RISEN CHRIST HYMN FESTIVAL ON MAY 7th

On Sunday, May 7, at 4:00 in the afternoon, Zion Lutheran in Mascoutah will be hosting a "Risen Christ Hymn Festival." This hymn festival is the book-end to the "Christ Triumphant Hymn Festival" held at Zion Lutheran in Belleville in November of 2022. We will be singing many of the great hymns of the Easter season, including "I Know That My Redeemer Lives," "Christ Has Arisen, Alleluia," "At the Lamb's High Feast," "Alleluia! Jesus Is Risen," "Now All the Vault of Heaven Resounds," and "Abide with Me." Between the hymns, we will hear commentaries from Dr. Jon Vieker, the Dean of the Chapel at Concordia Seminary in St. Louis, who previously was an assistant to LCMS President Matthew Harrison and a leader of the LCMS Commission on Worship. Come sing our joy found in Christ's resurrection!

The most common question about stewardship is not whether a Christian should give to their church. Of course, Christians should give to their church. Everyone knows this. Rather, the question asked most is, “How much should I give?” But this question really means, “Should Christians give a tenth of their income to their local congregation?”

Here are some common reasons against tithing. Some say tithing isn’t necessary because it isn’t expressly commanded in the New Testament. There is no “Thus saith the Lord,” or “should” concerning tithing. Others say that Christians give to their congregation in ways much broader than money. They give of their time and their talents, and these together with treasures (money) add up to more than a tithe. Still others say that they give of their treasures to other things besides their congregation, and they want to support those things alongside their church. And then there are those who think Christians shouldn’t tithe because of some fear. They are afraid that if they tithe, their gift will be misused, or that after tithing, there won’t be enough left over to get the things that they use, want, or need.

Here are some reasons why Christians should tithe. Even though the New Testament doesn’t specifically command Christians to tithe, the Old Testament people were commanded to. And on top of this, St. Paul often describes giving a regular and generous proportion of the first fruits of one’s income — terms similar to a tithe (2 Cor. 8:7–23; 2 Cor. 9:2–7).

But here’s another way to think about it. What was the point of the tithe in the Old Testament? Where did it go? This tithe was intended to support the ministry of the Levites. They were not given any land because they had no time to farm; their full-time job was the ministry. What does it say in the New Testament? “The Lord commanded that those who proclaim the gospel should get their living by the gospel” (1 Cor. 9:14). This is the verse that Luther used in the Small Catechism’s Table of Duties to explain what Christians owe to the support of the ministry.

It seems clear from both the Old and the New Testaments that the tithe is the goal of Christians in their giving. But what if we’re not there yet? How should we handle this? What are we to do?

Let’s answer this by asking a different question. What would you say to your adult children who only attended church quarterly or once a month? After all, there is no passage in the New Testament that requires Christians to go to church weekly. Hebrews 10:25 is the closest verse we have, and it states simply that Christians should not neglect gathering together. And even though there is no passage that commands Christians to gather weekly, that is the implicit expectation throughout the Old and New Testaments.

So, what would you say to that son or daughter? The conversation might go something like this. I’m glad you’re still going to church. It is a wonderful blessing to hear God’s promises of forgiveness, life and salvation, and to receive His gifts in Word and Sacrament. But you can do better, and it will only be a blessing to you. There is a better way, and I’d really like you to try to attain it.

We should approach the topic of tithing with a similar conversation. The tithe is not specifically commanded in the New Testament, but it sure seems like the implicit expectation of both the Old and New Testaments. So, we’re ecstatic that you’re giving, and that you’re giving in all these various ways — time, talents and treasures. But there is a better way. And that will only be a blessing to you, just as the Word of God — Old and New Testament alike — promises. Can you try increasing your gifts over the coming weeks, months and years? Can you put your trust in the God who sent His Son to take away your sin and give you everlasting life? And if He did this for you, if He did not spare His only Son, how will He not give you all things? He will not disappoint.
